Atle has had over 20 years' insolvency experience, together with extensive experience in forensic accounting and business advisory.

Atle has had experience in a large number of industries including hospitality and hotel management, mining, building and construction, property, financial services, insurance, vehicle fleet leasing, radio-based tracking systems, medical products, telecommunications providers, a technology retailer, a tiling business, a car wash business, electronics retailer, aged care, transport, a ski lodge, electricity retailer and a clothing manufacturer. Atle's major litigation assignments have included product recall matters, loss of profits calculations and quantification of damages across a wide range of industries.

Atle's primary experience has been gained across both formal and informal insolvency administrations, reviews and solvency assessments for banks and other corporate entities, and litigation, valuation and business advisory assignments. Atle was accepted as a Registered Liquidator by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission in June 2004, and as an Official Liquidator in July 2006.
