

Team Profile

Duncan Barber

Managing Partner Accounting

Duncan merged his business with Omniwealth in November 2015 after running his own business for 9 years. Prior to running his own business Duncan gained invaluable experience throughout second-tier firms in both Australia and the UK.

Duncan provides accounting, audit, taxation and business consulting services to a diverse range of clients. He is committed to fostering the adviser/client relationship gaining the best understanding of your needs and to determine the most appropriate financial strategy for you and your business. As an experienced, qualified auditor, Duncan provides audit and assurance services for a number of organisations including large private companies, not-for-profits and trust accounts. Duncan specialises in providing professional services to help you reach your financial goals.
